English + Further Study Downunder requires each Homestay household to have Public Liability Insurance Policy. Please check your Home and Contents Policies as these usually include Public Liability Insurance.

You must send a Certificate of Currency for the policy to verify that it is up-to-date. This can be obtained easily from your insurance company or broker. If you need assistance with insurance, please call our office.

Please read the following and sign below:

I am aware that each person over the age of 16 in our household must, by law, be subjected to a "Working With Children Security Check" and I /we agree to an employee of English + Further Study Downunder providing these details to the Employment Screening Unit, NSW Department of Education and Training or its interstate counterparts.

I understand that the Homestay accommodation agreement may be terminated in the event that our household does not meet all of the requirements.
